Le Testament de Villon is an opera written by American poet Ezra Pound. In 1919, when he was 34, Pound began charting his path as a novice composer, writing privately that he intended a revolt against the impressionistic music of Claude Debussy. An autodidact, Pound described his working method as "improving a system by refraining from obedience to all its present 'laws.'" With only a few formal lessons in music composition, Pound produced a small body of work, including a setting of Dante's ses
