Considerado um dos maiores autores da literatura norte-americana, Mark Twain explora em As aventuras de Huckleberry Finn questões sérias sobre problemas sociais, políticos e morais com que precisou lidar durante a guerra civil dos Estados Unidos, muitos dos quais ainda estão presentes nos dias de hoje. Ao escapar do pai violento e se refugiar em uma ilha, Huck Finn aproxima-se de Jim, um escravo fugido, e desenvolve com ele uma solidária relação de amizade. Em busca de liberdade, a dupla começa uma viagem pelo leito do rio Mississippi, e a cada parada envolve-se em inusitadas aventuras. Além da voz infantil de um narrador que desce em fuga pelo Mississippi, Twain desenvolve uma segunda história, que destaca a inocência perdida de uma nação. Nesta edição de bolso foi mantido o caráter de oralidade que permeia todo o texto e que varia de acordo com a região e a origem social de cada personagem. Uma deliciosa sátira social, recomendada para todas as idades.
