Excerpt: Thomas & Friends (previously known as Thomas the Tank Engine & Friends) is a children's television series about the engines and other characters working on the railways of the Island of Sodor, and is based on The Railway Series books written by the Rev. W. Awdry. This article lists and details episodes from the first series, which was originally broadcast in 1984. Most of these episodes were given alternate titles for release in America, as reflected in the table below. All episodes from this season can be found on the DVD release Thomas: The Early Years, released by Anchor Bay Entertainment/Hit Entertainment in 2004. Series 1 was narrated by Ringo Starr. He and George Carlin later recorded additional narration to the stories for American audiences. It was produced by Clearwater Features for Britt Allcroft (Thomas) Ltd. All of the stories in Series 1 were originally written by the Rev. W. Awdry, including a one-off story commissioned by the staff, Thomas' Christmas Party. The seven engines introduced in this series became the core of the cast in later episodes, with crewmember (and from Series 8-12, director) Steve Asquith terming them the "Magnificent Seven." Many settings from the first series would stay with the show for years, even through its 2009 transition to CGI, such...
